4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 3,621,446 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 3,638,741)

After School Programs: A free program that provides a safe environment in which students can thrive during after school hours. The program starts with a snack, finishes with a hot meal and provides a wealth of activities in between. Enhancing academic performance in language arts, science and math, the program features instruction by certified teachers for one hour each day. This is followed by a wide range of enrichment activities including choir, dance, sports, cheerleading, band and much more. The program has a 95% promotion rate for the students who attend. The program is provided in nineteen elementary and middle schools in Duval County.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 869,154 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 937,019)

Case Management (Student Enrichment) Programs: Places full - time student advocates on campus in Duval County schools. These advocates work with principals, teachers and guidance counselors to stabilize students who are at risk of falling behind or dropping out. The Student Enrichment Program has advocates "embedded" in seventeen public schools: seven elementary schools, four middle schools, five high schools and an alternative education center. Home visits and parental involvement are integral parts of the program, and the advocates connect students to the needed community resources. Students are counseled individually and in group sessions throughout the school year to provide them with life skills that will help them learn and succeed in life. In 2010 - 2011, approximately 85% of the

Literacy (Americorps) Program: Communities in Schools recognizes the vital need for students to successfully read and comprehend at an early age.
Children learn to read from kindergarten through third grade. They read to learn from fourth grade on. The literacy initiative is a tutoring / reading program (Americorps) that provides one-on-one and small group tutoring services to students in kindergarten through eighth grade with the goal of increasing their reading level by at least one grade. Tutors (who

In 2009 - 2010, 42 tutors provided services through Duval Reads. 82% of Communities in Schools Literacy Program participants increased their reading levels by one grade and 85% were promoted to the next grade.

Special Projects: Communities in Schools engaged in various special projects during 2010-2011. These projects included: (a) A back-to-school rally to provide health screenings and basic school supplies for school-age children in Duval County, particularly aimed at low-income families. The rally served over 2,000 children and families. (b) CIS National Accreditation - designed to build and enhance program infrastructure to achieve certification from the national Communities in Schools organization, (c) Honor Rows, a special recognition program in which students are selected to attend a Jacksonville Jaguars game. The Honor Rows program served over 500 Communities in Schools students in 2010-2011.
